

Emeriti faculty and retired staff may obtain a retiree identification card which permits them access to specified University benefits and activities.

- Continued use of Truman email.
- Guest parking sticker.
- Notary Public services available in the Business Office.
- Tuition waiver as outlined in Board of Governors policy.
- At cost copy work at Printing Services.
- Use of the Library.
- Admittance into all regular season sporting events held on the Truman campus.
- Use of Student Recreation Center, participation in ongoing programs, and eligibility for Designated Guest ID card program where eligible dependents receive an ID card granting privileges similar to retirees but on a more restricted basis.
- Use of Natatorium during designated faculty and staff time period.
- If under the age of 65, options for continued medical, dental, and vision through COBRA and conversion of life insurance to a “term” policy with the retiree paying the premium.

The President’s Office, in conjunction with the Office of Advancement, annually invites all local emeriti and retired staff to an Emeriti and Retired Staff Dinner and the Faculty and Staff Holiday Open House.

Mailing addresses for all emeriti faculty members and retired staff are maintained in the President’s Office, with updates provided to the Offices of Advancement and Human Resources.

In addition, all emeriti and retired staff may receive the Truman Today and Truman Review, along with relevant alumni and advancement contact via email or mailings on an individual basis depending on preference. Updates for both publications should be made with the Offices of Public Relations and Advancement.
